ALL THINGS PEAK DISTRICT

Terms and Conditions for adding events to allthingspeakdistrict.com

* The events listing service is a free service provided by All Things Peak District. This service is free of charge. There are certain rules and limitations to the service as detailed below.

* Events must be submitted through our online form: https://allthingspeakdistrict.com/submit-event/

* Events submitted must include at least one image, which will be at least 1200 pixels in width.

* Events submitted without an image will not be published on the website. If you do not have an image of the event, please use an image of the venue or local area. Please ensure you have the correct usage permissions in place before submitting.

* Please include a full address of the event plus contact details if applicable.

* Please include as much detailed information about your event as possible, including facilities, parking, accessibility, opening times, dates etc.

* Events deemed as regular business activities will not be accepted. If you wish to add a business listing to our site, please contact us for details.

* All Things Peak District reserves the right to refuse to publish or remove an event at any time without question if deemed to contravene our terms and conditions.

* If your event is postponed or cancelled, please contact us at the earliest opportunity so we can update or remove the event.

* Once you have submitted an event, you agree that the information you have provided can be used on allthingspeakdistrict.com and our social media accounts and in our marketing content.
